

artnet galleries

Digital Gallery Hopping

Galerie Goya Contemporary & Goya-Girl Press
Both Sides Now: The Spirituality, Resilience & Innovation of Elizabeth Talford Scott

This exhibition celebrates the life and practice of Elizabeth Talford Scott, a textile artist who has been historically overlooked due to systemic structures that failed to recognize the work of significant female makers and people of color in their lifetimes. Her art objects feel as fresh and relevant today as the days they were constructed, proving Scott a significant artist, whose work was not only of her time but is timeless.